

DfES calls Home Education an "anomaly" not in line with the Every Child Matters agenda.	DfES calls Home Education an "anomaly" not in line with the Every Child Matters agenda.
Every Child Matters More than 360,000 children injured in schools each year 450,000 children bullied in school last year At least 16 children commit suicide each year as a result of school bullying An estimated 1 million children truant every year Treasury statistics show more than 1 in 6 children leave school each year unable to read, write or add up	Every Child Matters More than 360,000 children injured in schools each year 450,000 children bullied in school last year At least 16 children commit suicide each year as a result of school bullying An estimated 1 million children truant every year Treasury statistics show more than 1 in 6 children leave school each year unable to read, write or add up
Every Child Matters?	Every Child Matters?
Home Education because EACH child matters, individually	Home Education because EACH child matters, individually
www.ahed.org.uk	DHED www.ahed.org.uk
From: Age:	From:	Age:
DfES calls Home Education an "anomaly" not in line with the Every Child Matters agenda.	DfES calls Home Education an "anomaly" not in line with the Every Child Matters agenda.
not in line with the Every Child Matters agenda. Every Child Matters More than 360,000 children injured in schools each year 450,000 children bullied in school last year At least 16 children commit suicide each year as a result of school bullying An estimated 1 million children truant every year Treasury statistics show more than 1 in 6 children leave	not in line with the Every Child Matters agenda. Every Child Matters Wore than 360,000 children injured in schools each year 450,000 children bullied in school last year At least 16 children commit suicide each year as a result of school bullying An estimated 1 million children truant every year Treasury statistics show more than 1 in 6 children leave school not in line with the Every Child Matters agenda. Every Child Matters More than 360,000 children injured in schools each year 450,000 children bullied in school last year At least 16 children commit suicide each year as a result of school bullying An estimated 1 million children truant every year Treasury statistics show more than 1 in 6 children leave school each year unable to read, write or add up	not in line with the Every Child Matters agenda. Every Child Matters More than 360,000 children injured in schools each year 450,000 children bullied in school last year At least 16 children commit suicide each year as a result of school bullying An estimated 1 million children truant every year Treasury statistics show more than 1 in 6 children leave school each year unable to read, write or add up
not in line with the Every Child Matters agenda. Every Child Matters More than 360,000 children injured in schools each year 450,000 children bullied in school last year At least 16 children commit suicide each year as a result of school bullying An estimated 1 million children truant every year Treasury statistics show more than 1 in 6 children leave school each year unable to read, write or add up Every Child Matters? Home Education	not in line with the Every Child Matters agenda. Every Child Matters More than 360,000 children injured in schools each year 450,000 children bullied in school last year At least 16 children commit suicide each year as a result of school bullying An estimated 1 million children truant every year Treasury statistics show more than 1 in 6 children leave school each year unable to read, write or add up Every Child Matters? Home Education	